INFORMATION

It's a great tribute to God that he does not leave us to our own devices, not knowing how we are to live or how we are to behave ourselves to please Him. When we truly examine what God does say to us concerning how we are to behave and live we find that his requirements are not burdensome. When we look deeper we see that what he desires for us is to live, not so that he is not hurt, but that we and other people are not hurt.

WHAT IT MEANS TO OUR FAMILY

Are we taking to heart the instructions of God? Do we realize that his rules are for our benefit, not his?
